Safety Precautions

Thank you for purchasing this product. Before using it, be sure to read the Safety Precautions contained in this User's Guide. Keep this manual handy in a safe place for future reference when required.

Warning

This symbol indicates information that, if ignored or applied incorrectly, creates the possibility of death or serious personal injury.

Caution

This symbol indicates information that, if ignored or applied incorrectly, creates the risk of personal injury or material damage.

Examples of other markings

○ Indicates something you should not do. The symbol shown here indicates you should not try to take something apart.

● Indicates something you must do.

Warning

Smoke, abnormal odor, overheating, and other abnormalities

Do not continue to use the printer while it is emitting smoke or strange odor, or generating heat.

Continued use of the printer creates the risk of fire and electric shock. Immediately perform the following steps whenever any of the above symptoms are present.

1. Disconnect the USB cable.
2. Unplug the AC adaptor from the wall outlet.
3. Contact your original retailer.

AC Adaptor

Misuse of the optional AC adaptor creates the risk of fire and electric shock.

Make sure you observe the following.

- Use only the specified AC adaptor.
- Use only a power source that is within the input voltage range indicated by INPUT on the AC adaptor's rating plate.

- Never plug the power cord into a wall outlet that is shared by other devices, or into a shared extension cord.

AC Adaptor/USB Cable

Misuse of the AC adaptor/USB cable can cause it to become damaged, creating the risk of fire and electric shock.

Make sure you observe the following.

- Never place heavy objects on the AC adaptor/USB cable or subject it to direct heat.
- Do not use the AC adaptor/USB cable in areas where liquids might spill on them.
- Do not twist or pull on the AC adaptor/USB cable cord.
- Do not wrap the cord around the adaptor.

- Should the AC adaptor/USB cable or its plug ever become damaged, contact your original retailer.

AC Adaptor/USB Cable

- Never touch the AC adaptor/USB cable or plug while your hands are wet. Doing so creates the risk of electric shock.
- Do not use the AC adaptor/USB cable in areas where liquids might spill on them. Water creates the risk of fire and electric shock.
- Do not place a flower vase or any other liquid container on top of the AC adaptor/USB cable or power cord. Water creates the risk of fire and electric shock.
- Do not cover the AC adaptor/USB cable with a newspaper, tablecloth, curtain, futon, blanket, or other similar object. Doing so creates the risk of fire.

AC Adaptor

Before going out, be sure to unplug the power cord/AC adaptor from the power outlet and put in a place away from objects used by animals and pets. An animal or pet chewing on the power cord/AC adaptor can cause it short, leading to the risk of fire and electric shock.

 Warning

Dropping and Rough Treatment

Continued use of the printer after it is damaged by dropping or other rough treatment creates the risk of fire and electric shock. Immediately perform the following steps whenever any of the above symptoms are present.

1. Disconnect the USB cable.
2. Unplug the AC adaptor from the wall outlet.
3. Contact your original retailer.

Disassembly and Modification

Never try to take the printer apart or modify it in any way. Doing so creates the risk of electric shock, burn injury, and other personal injury.

Leave all internal inspection, maintenance, and repair up to your original retailer.

Liquids and Foreign Matter

Water, sports drinks, seawater, animal or pet urine, or foreign objects (pieces of metal, etc.) getting into the printer creates the risk of fire and electric shock. Immediately perform the following steps whenever any of the above symptoms are present.

1. Disconnect the USB cable.
2. Unplug the AC adaptor from the wall outlet.
3. Contact your original retailer.

Keep Away From Fire

Never throw the printer into fire to dispose of it. Doing so creates the risk of explosion, which can cause fire or personal injury.

Packaging Plastic Bag

Take care never to allow the plastic bag the printer comes in to be ingested or placed over anyone's head. Doing so creates the risk of suffocation.

Particular care is required in households where small children are present.

Labels Attachment Locations

Do not attach labels to containers used for heating in a microwave oven. The label material includes metal, so heating in a microwave oven creates the risk of fire and burn injury.

Also, the container with the label may become deformed.

Caution

AC Adaptor/USB Cable

Misuse of the AC adaptor/USB cable creates the risk of fire and electric shock. Make sure you observe the following.

- Never locate the AC adaptor/USB cable near a stove or other heating device.
- When unplugging from the wall outlet, grasp the AC adaptor/USB cable plug. Never pull on the AC adaptor/USB cable.

- Insert the AC adaptor plug into the wall outlet as far as it will go.
- Insert the USB cable plug into the connector as far as it will go.
- Unplug the AC adaptor from the power outlet and the USB cable from the connector before leaving the printer unattended for long periods, such as when leaving on a trip, etc.
- After you are finished using the printer, unplug the AC adaptor from the power outlet and the USB cable from the connector.
- At least once a year, unplug the power cord from the wall outlet and use a cloth or vacuum cleaner to clean any dust build up on the prongs of the power plug and in the area around the plug.
- Do not use detergent when cleaning the power cord (especially the plug) or the AC adaptor (especially the jack).
- Plug the AC adaptor into a power outlet that is near the printer and easily accessible so you can quickly unplug it in case of problems.
- Store the AC adaptor in a dry place.
- Use the power cord that comes with the printer to connect the AC adaptor.
- Do not use the power cord that comes with the printer with any other device. Failure to do so can lead to malfunction.

Connections

Plug only specified devices into the connectors of this printer. Non-specified devices create the risk of fire and electric shock.

Heavy Objects

Do not place heavy objects on the printer. Doing so can cause the printer to tip over or fall, creating the risk of personal injury.

Locations to be Avoided

Never leave the printer in any of the following types of locations. Doing so creates the risk of fire and electric shock.

- Areas subject to large amounts of humidity or dust
- Food preparation areas or other locations where oil smoke is present
- Near heaters, on a heated carpet, in areas exposed to direct sunlight, in a closed vehicle parked in the sun, or other areas subject to very high temperatures.

Unstable Locations

Never place the printer on an unstable surface, on a high shelf, etc. Doing so can cause the printer to fall, creating the risk of personal injury.

 Caution

Tape Loading and Tape Replacement Precautions

The cutter has sharp edges. Do not touch the cutter. Touching the cutter can cause finger cuts.

High-temperature Precautions

The printer head and the metal parts around it can become very hot. Do not touch them. Doing so creates the risk of burn injury.

Cutter Precautions

Do not insert your fingers into the cutter at the tape outlet. Doing so creates the risk of finger cuts and personal injury.

Use Precautions

To get the most out of your printer, be sure to observe the following precautions.

- Avoid using the printer in locations exposed to direct sunlight, locations with high humidity, locations where static electricity is easily generated, locations subjected to sudden extreme temperature changes, and locations where it is extremely cold or hot. The operating temperature range is 10°C to 35°C (50°F to 95°F).
- Take care to avoid allowing the printer to be subjected to strong impact or forces.
- Do not allow paper clips or pins to get inside of the printer.
- Do not pull on the tape with undue force or try to push it back into the printer.
- A dirty printer head will make printed text blurry. If this happens, refer to the user maintenance procedures in this manual (page 20) and clean the printer head and rubber roller.

About the Provided CD-ROM

Handling Precautions

- When handling the disk, make sure to avoid getting fingerprints or dirt on either side of it, and make sure not to scratch or damage the disk surface.
- If the disk becomes dirty, clean it with a soft, dry cloth (like the one use for cleaning eyeglasses), wiping from the center of the disk in a motion that radiates outwards. Do not use a phonograph record cleaner or other cleaning agents to clean a disk.
- Do not write or draw on either surface of the disk with a pencil, ballpoint pen or other hard pointed writing implement, and do not affix stickers to the disk.
- Never use a disk that is cracked, warped, or repaired with glue or by any other means. Doing so is dangerous.

Storage Precautions

- Avoid storing in locations exposed to high temperature, high humidity, and direct sunlight when storing the disk.
- After using the disk, store it in the case it came in when you bought the printer.
- Avoid storing the disk in a soft case or bag that comes into direct contact with the label side of the disk.

Warning

Never try to use the CD-ROM in a device that is not intended for CD-ROM reading. Playing back the CD-ROM on a music CD drive will output sound at a volume that can damage your ears or the speakers of an audio system.

Operating Environment Required by the Software

- | | |
|-----------|--|
| OS | Microsoft Windows 8, Windows 7, Windows Vista, Windows XP |
| Computer | PC/AT compatible computer that satisfies the conditions below. <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Pre-installed with one of the above operating systems.• CPU recommended for the operating system being used.• USB port installed as standard. |
| Memory | At least 128 MB of memory recommended for the operating system being used. |
| Hard Disk | At least 120 MB of free space. |
| CD drive | For installation |
- Any other system requirements recommended by the operating system being used.
 - Certain equipment configurations may not support proper operation.
 - This software will not run on Windows XP 64-bit versions.
 - Operation is not guaranteed on an operating system that has been upgraded or modified in any way from the pre-installed state.

Installing the Software

Installation of the software that come with the printer is explained in this manual based on a computer running the English version of Windows XP, with English selected as the display language. Screens produced by other operating systems or when another display language is selected may be different from the screen shots shown here.

For information about basic Windows operations, refer to the user documentation that came with your computer or your computer's help feature.

Precautions when Installing and Uninstalling

- If you have a previous version of the software installed on your computer, use Add or Remove Programs on the Windows Control Panels to uninstall it before installing this software.
- Note that you will need to log in to your system with an administrator account or an account with administrator privileges in order to install or uninstall software.

Read This Before Installing the Software!

Important!

- Do not connect the printer to your computer until you install the software on your computer. The software may not operate correctly if you install it after connecting the printer.
- Trying to install the software while virus checker software is running on your computer can cause errors and/or warning messages to appear on your computer during installation. If this happens, perform the following steps.
 1. Exit the installer and uninstall the software that was installed up to this point.
 2. Exit the virus checker software and all other software currently running on your computer.
 3. Restart the installer.
 4. After installing the software, restart the programs you exited in step 2, above.

In this manual, drive D: is assumed as the CD drive.

■ To install the software

1. Before starting installation, exit all other programs currently running on your computer.
 - Failure to do so can result in improper installation.
2. Place the printer's CD-ROM into your computer's CD drive.
This should cause the screen shown nearby to appear automatically.

- The screen may not appear automatically on some computers. If that happens on your computer, go to your Windows Start menu, select Run..., input D:\setup.exe (don't forget to use the correct drive name in place of D:) into the text box on the screen that appears, and then click OK.
 - If your computer is running Windows 8, Windows 7, or Windows Vista, an AutoPlay menu will start up at this time. Select Run setup.exe under "Install or run program from your media" or "Install or run program". When the user account control dialog box appears, click Yes or Continue.
3. Select the installation language and then click OK.

This will start installation. Follow the instructions on your screen.

- A message will appear on your screen to let you know when installation is complete.
- If your computer is running Windows 8, Windows 7, or Windows Vista, the message shown below will appear during installation. Click Install to proceed with the installation.

- If your computer is running Windows XP, the message shown below may appear during installation. Click Continue Anyway to proceed with the installation.

Viewing User Documentation on the CD-ROM

Your computer must have Adobe Reader or Acrobat Reader 5.0 or higher installed in order to view the software user documentation in the PDF files on the CD-ROM.

If you need to install one of these applications, visit the Adobe Systems Incorporated support site at <http://get.adobe.com/reader/> and follow the instructions there.

■ To view user documentation PDF files

1. Make sure that Adobe Reader or Acrobat Reader 5.0 or higher is installed on your computer (see the preceding section above).
2. On the Windows Start menu, select Programs and then CASIO. Next, align the mouse pointer with MANUAL, and then click the name of the PDF file you want to view.

Removing the Software from Your Computer

You can use the procedure below to remove the software from your computer.

■ To remove the software from your computer

1. On the Windows Start menu, click Control Panel.
2. Click the Add or Remove Programs icon.
This will display the Add or Remove Programs dialog box, which shows a list of software installed on your computer.
3. In the Currently installed programs list, click "MEP-PC10".
4. Click Change or Remove Programs or Remove.
 - On the delete confirmation screen that appears, click OK.
5. Click Finish.
This removes the software from your computer.

General Guide

Loading and Removing Tape

Tape must be loaded in the printer in order to print labels.
Use the tape that comes with the printer or commercially available tape.

■ To load tape

1. Slide the tape compartment cover release lever in the direction of arrow "a" and open the tape compartment cover. At this time, take care to avoid catching your fingers on the cutter.

Important!

Do not try to force the tape compartment cover past its normal range of movement. Excessive force creates the risk of printer malfunction and damage.

2. Check the condition of the tape.

- Make sure the tip of the tape is not bent. If it is, use scissors to cut off the bent part.

Tape

Pull out approximately 11 cm (4.3 in), measured from the center of the roll to the tip of the tape.

3. Place the tape into the printer.

Run the tape over the rubber roller (see figure below). Make sure the tape is seated securely onto the bearing.

- When loading tape, take care not to touch the cutter. Touching the cutter can cause finger cuts.
- The printer head becomes hot during printing. Do not touch the printer head when loading tape.

Important!

- Never try to push tape back in.
- Do not pull on the tape with excessive force. Doing so will lead to malfunction of the printer.
- Note that normal printing may not be possible at the leading edge of a new roll of tape.
- Incorrectly loading the tape can cause malfunction of the printer.

- For 18 mm (approx. 0.7 in.) wide tape, pass the tape between the tape guides as shown in the nearby figure.

- For 12 mm (approx. 0.5 in.) and 9 mm (approx. 0.4 in.) wide tape, pass the tape inside the tape guides as shown in the nearby figure.

4. Close the tape compartment cover.

- Press down on the cover until it clicks securely into place.
- Do not pull on the tape or try to push it back after loading it in the printer.

Tape Precautions

- Leaving the tape in the printer for long periods can cause unwanted marks on the tape, deterioration of adhesion, and even make proper printing impossible. Be sure to remove the tape and properly store it if you do not plan to print on it for a long time.
- This tape uses thermal paper. Use in the following types of locations can cause discoloration of the tape, and so should be avoided.
 - Near a window, outdoors, or in any other locations exposed to direct sunlight
 - Locations where tape is exposed to high temperatures, rain, or splashing water
- Do not scrape the printing surface of the tape with your finger nail, metal objects, etc.
- This tape uses a re-adherable type adhesive. Depending on the surface or object to which it is affixed, the tape may detach from the surface or leave glue residue when removed.
- Note that long term display of this tape can result in discoloration.
- When not using tape, store it in a plastic bag or its original box.
- Do not leave tape in a motor vehicle parked in sunlight.
- Avoid locations exposed to high temperature, high humidity, and direct sunlight when storing tape.
- The tape is subject to discoloration so use it as soon as possible after unpacking it.

■ To remove tape from the printer

1. Open the tape compartment cover.
2. Grasp the tape with your fingers and lift straight up.
 - When removing tape, take care not to touch the cutter. Touching the cutter can cause finger cuts.
 - The printer head becomes hot during printing. Do not touch the printer head when removing tape.

Connecting the Printer to Your Computer

Important!

Be sure to install the printer software on your computer before connecting the printer to it.

■ To connect the printer to your computer

1. After starting up Windows, connect the USB cable that comes with the printer to your computer's USB port.

Important!

Be sure to connect directly to a USB port on your computer. The printer may not operate correctly if it is connected indirectly to another USB port. Even if you connect directly to one of your computer's USB ports, your computer may not be able to recognize the printer due to some sort of incompatibility. If this happens, try connecting to a different USB port on your computer.

2. Plug the AC adaptor plug into the printer's AC adaptor terminal.
3. Connect the power cord to the AC adaptor.
4. Plug the power cord into a household power outlet.

Important!

Use only the AC adaptor specified for this printer.

5. Connect the USB cable to the printer's USB port.

Important!

If this is the first time you are connecting to the printer, you will need to remove the sticker from the printer's USB port.

- This will display a wizard on your computer screen for installing the USB driver. The USB driver is required to make it possible for the printer to communicate with your computer. Follow the instructions that appear on your computer screen to install the USB driver.

- If your computer is running Windows XP Service Pack3 (SP3), the message shown nearby will appear during installation. Select “No, not this time” and then click Next > to proceed with the installation.

- If your computer is running Windows XP, the warning message shown nearby will appear during installation. Click Continue Anyway to proceed with the installation.

■ To disconnect the printer from your computer

- Disconnect the USB cable from the computer's USB port and the printer's USB port.
- Unplug the AC adaptor plug from the wall outlet, and disconnect the AC adaptor from the printer.

Important!

- Never disconnect the AC adaptor or USB cable while printing is in progress. Doing so can cause printer malfunction.
- Do not touch the AC adaptor plug or USB cable while data communication is in progress. Static electricity from your fingers and other problems can cause communication to be cut off.

Printing a Label

For information about the procedure required to print on tape, see the MEP-PC10 PC Application User's Guide.

■ To cut the tape

Holding the tape between your fingers as shown in the illustration, pull it up against the printer's tape cutter to cut it.

Important!

Check to make sure that printing is completely stopped before cutting the tape. Cutting the tape while printing is in progress can cause tape jams and damage the printer.

■ To affix a label to a surface

1. Use scissors or some other implement to trim the label to the required size, if necessary.
2. Affix the label to the desired surface.
 - Affixing a label to a surface may cause adhesive to remain on the surface when the label is removed.

Important!

Do not affix labels to the types of surfaces listed below.

Human or animal skin/walls, utility poles, and other surfaces located on other people's property/containers used for heating in a microwave oven

Unsuitable Surfaces (Label may not stick.)

- Rough surfaces
- Surfaces that are wet, oily, dusty, or covered with other matter
- Special plastic materials (silicon, polypropylene, etc.)

User Maintenance

Printed label quality will suffer if the printer head and/or rubber roller become dirty. A dirty tape cutter will result in poor cutting performance. Periodically perform the user maintenance steps below to clean the printer head, rubber roller, and tape cutter.

Important!

Use a cotton swab or some other similar soft object to clean the printer head, rubber roller, and tape cutter. Use of an ultra thin swab is recommended.

■ To clean printer components

1. Open the tape compartment cover.
 - If there is tape loaded in the printer, remove it.

Important!

The printer head is hot during and immediately after printing. Be sure to allow enough time for it to cool before removing the tape.

2. Moisten the swab with alcohol and then use it to wipe the printer head, rubber roller, and tape cutter surfaces. At this time, do not directly touch the tape cutter. Touching the cutter can cause finger cuts.

Take particular care when wiping the contact areas of the roller and printer head.

- You can also use a commercially available cassette tape recorder head cleaning kit for cleaning.

Cleaning the Exterior of the Printer

Moisten a soft cloth with water, completely wring out any excess, and then wipe the exterior of the printer. Do not use benzene, alcohol, thinner, or any other volatile agent, which can damage the printer.

Troubleshooting

Should you experience any problem with printer operation, take the actions described in the table below. If the steps described below do not solve the problem, contact your retailer or your nearest CASIO service center.
